Plot This story is about a boy Pintu (Anupam Kher), and a girl Shashi (Varsha Usgaonkar). Their parents Kanta (Aruna Irani) and Uma (Pratima Patil) are childhood sweethearts. Uma's elder brother, Prem, is a rich man who thinks that he is destined to be a playboy. One day, Prem enters Shashi's house and they become friends. As Pintu grows up, he wants to marry Shashi. However, Uma is not against their marriage and promises to support the couple. Prem refuses to accept Prem's elder sister's (the sister-in-law) marriage proposal as he is in love with his friend's fiancée, Ritu (Kirron Kher), who is a simple village girl and a rags-to-riches story. Ritu is forced to marry the man she loves, Prem. Before the wedding, Prem learns that Uma has an affair with a sadhu called Hari (Shatrughan Sinha). After that, he goes to Hari's ashram and leaves the matter in his hands. He is forced to return after getting to know that his sister has been raped. However, Prem realises that Pintu is a good person, so he allows Pintu to marry Shashi.
